- The Quadrathlon starts as own group (Solo and relay)
- Time measurement means transponder, at the right wrist
- At the Bergsee Ratscher we have the great situation that our athletes can camp right next to the transition zone and the lake, so as to sit still relaxed after the competition. In addition to the possibility to camp, which is possible without reservation, there are also small houses (with reservation) in the area of the race. Further information is available on the pages of the Bergsee Ratschers: www.bergseeratscher.de
- But also the foothills of the Thuringian forest around Schleussingen have a lot to offer, where there are numerous accommodation offers waiting:
